

SCHOOL ARTS & CULTURE MEMBERSHIP FORM

CULTURE CONSORTIUM SHROPSHIRE (CCS)

Are you looking for ways to bring the curriculum to life?

Would you like your school to work with a range of artists, arts and culture organisations based in Shropshire, to support you in delivering a creative curriculum?

Would you like information on what arts programmes and projects are available for your school?

By signing up as a contact in your school for arts and culture, you will directly receive information from CCS on; CPD training, workshops, funded projects, resources to help you deliver an arts and culture programme linked to the national curriculum, monthly newsletter and a database of culture providers working with children and young people in Shropshire.

CCS are a network of organisations, from; arts, culture and heritage, festivals, education sector, Music Service and Music Hub; libraries; museums; local authority and other relevant organisations, who all work with children and young people (CYP) in Shropshire.

Through the network, organisations are working together collectively to improve the culture offer for CYP in the county and help enrich their lives through engagement with arts and culture.
